Guests: Kristie Rios

IV. Approval of Minutes.

Jodie motioned for the minutes from October 16, 2023 be approved. Dara seconded the motion. Minutes were approved unanimously.

V. Director's Report – Erica Solano – Not Present

VI. Director's Report – Bryan Hummel

Lots of upcoming travel to plan. The London visit went very well. He is currently finishing up the details for Universal and will get these out to parents soon. Metallica recording is tomorrow night and should be great. Band is going to support the football team at their away game in the play-offs on Friday night. He is also working on the Winter concerts.

VII. Treasurer's Report – Dara Marsello

Multiple fundraiser checks should be coming in soon. Marching Band will have heavy expenses from the trucks, fuel, food, senior night, etc. There will be some additional expenses with the upcoming concert and orchestra season ahead.

VIII. Old Business

We had some very successful Restaurant nights.

Menchis $200, Panda Express $87, Panera $70, and Portillos $72

Chipotle is scheduled for December 6th and Texas Roadhouse is in progress.

We are waiting for feedback about the success of the Goodwill Drive at MMR.

Boosters received generous donations (Field Paint & Febreze) from the Rogers Family.

Events Since Last Meeting-

Future Wolves Night was a success with the highlight being the Chick-Fil-A sandwiches.

Senior Dinner was held at Parlay and was a great evening. We plan to do it there again next year.

Our partnership with football, pom and cheer boosters for Senior Night was a success.

ABODA Semi-Finals - Our Band did well and put on a great performance.

SUSD Invitational went very smoothly, and all enjoyed being able to see the SUSD Band Perform.
